

CURRICULUM VITAE

Mark Seymour
32/52 Martin Place
Sydney NSW 2001
Tel: (02) 8227 9600
seymour@mpchambers.net.au

Career

2004 – Present
Barrister
Martin Place Chambers

Since 2004 my practice has primarily been in environmental and planning law with a particular focus on environmental, planning and administrative law as well as compulsory acquisition and valuation. I have also conducted general property and commercial matters.

In 2017 I completed training to become an accredited mediator through the London School of Mediation.

In 2017 I also commenced study as a PhD Candidate at the Australian National University on the topic of Constitutional law and Citizenship

Achievements

Law Council of Australia New South Wales Young Environmental Lawyer of the Year 2008

Other professional activities

Co-Author, "Annotated Local Government Act 1993", LexisNexis
Member, NSW Bar Association Professional Conduct Committee

Other responsibilities

Director, Belvoir Street Theatre Ltd

Education

PhD (candidate)
Australian National University

Master of Laws (Commercial and Public Law)
Australian National University

Graduate Certificate in Urban and Regional Planning
University of Sydney

Bachelor of Laws (Hons, First Class)
University of Technology, Sydney

Certificate of Training as an Accredited Mediator
London School of Mediation